

Fernando Coello Sanz

E-mail: fernando.coellosanz@gmail.com

Telephone: +34 620 269 503

Education:

M. Sc. in Terrestrial Ecology and Biodiversity Management

| 2019-2020 | Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona

Specialization in Terrestrial Ecology

Master's thesis: 'The Role of Nutrient Availability in the Functional and Phylogenetic Diversity of Tree Communities in Tropical Rainforests'

Bachelor in Environmental Engineer

| 2012-2017 | Universidad Politécnica de Madrid

Prevention and Correction of Environmental Impacts

Bachelor's thesis: 'Assessment of conservation status of mires and peatbogs habitats at Sierra de Gredos Regional Park'

Experience:

Department of Animal Science, Universidad de Lleida hired by Tragsatec

| since May 2020 |

Project:

'Practical application of the procedures for monitoring and evaluation of a river habitat type' – Data Analysis and Project Writer

Natural Environment Department, Tragsatec (Madrid)

| October 2017 - October 2019 |

Projects:

'Reporting under Article 17 of the Habitats Directive 2013 - 2018: Habitat Types, development of Spanish Report' – GIS and Data Management

'Flora species monitoring (2016 -2018)' – GIS and Technical Assistance

Internship: Department of Natural Systems and Resources, Universidad Politécnica de Madrid

| November 2016 – March 2017 |

'Technical assistance for the monitoring of endangered and special protected flora species in Spain'

Internship: Gredos Regional Park

| August 2016 – September 2016 |

'Assessment of conservation status of mires and peatbogs'

Volunteer: 8th Congress of Plant Conservation Biology – Madrid (Spain) 2017

| July 2017 |

Additional information:

Knowledge of languages (Approximate level: B=beginner, I=intermediate, A=advanced)

	Talks	Reads	Writes
Spanish	A	A	A
English	B	A	A

Computer skills

R, QGIS, ArcGIS, AutoCad, PostgreSQL, Hec-Ras, MaxEnt